Constant, Dordogne, France

Situated some 20 minutes drive from the beautiful town of Bergerac in the heart of the Dordogne, is the old hamlet of Constant which the Bond has rebuilt in the traditional Period style. The Dordogne is renowned for its fine food and wine, villages and vineyards, fauna and flora, prehistoric caves, troglodyte dwellings, medieval and renaissance Châteaux. Sport is also well represented with canoeing, golf, horse riding, airparks, and many local walks. Traditional boat trips are another original way to discover this beautiful region. In summer months, many festivals are organised; classical, folk or jazz music, medieval festivals with tournaments and other ancient games.

Constant, which stood derelict for 30 years, overlooks magnificent views of the surrounding and largely wooded landscape. The village is made up of sixty apartments and cottages consisting of 1 bedroom, 2 bedroom, 3 bedroom and 4 bedroom properties with satellite TV, video/DVD and telephone. The site facilities include one indoor swimming pool with a Trimnasium, sauna and massage room, two outdoor swimming pools (the smaller of which is heated in the Spring and Autumn), two tennis courts, boules, herb garden, a children's playground, a games room (table tennis, shuffleboard, table football machine, etc) and a Clubhouse with a snooker, American pool table, children's room, book library and a laundry. A shop, information centre and a video/DVD library are located at Reception. There is also a health track adjacent to the site in the woods.

Cottage No. 38 - Cotes de Castillon

max sleeping capacity 4, no pets allowed.

Ground floor – Twin bedroom with separate wheel-in shower room, open plan kitchen/dining/living room with terrace. First floor - Double bedroom with separate bathroom. Parking near to cottage.

Le Mont de St Simeon, Île de France, France

The area is well known as the home of “Brie” cheese, and has many attractions including the Chateaux at Fontainebleau and Vaux-le-Vicomte, the medieval city of Provins and the more distant champagne centres of Reims and Epernay. Le Mont de St. Simeon is set on a gentle hillside near the village of St. Simeon and approximately 6 miles east of the town of Coulommiers and 26 miles east of Disneyland Paris.

The site has 39 completed units consisting of 1, 2 and 3 bedroom apartments and cottages with a leisure centre housing a heated indoor swimming pool and sauna, clubroom and information centre, DVD library, half-size billiards table, pool table and table tennis table. There is also an outdoor pool, a children’s pool and tennis court. Outside, there is a children’s play area and a boules pitch. The village of St. Simeon has a small garage, a shop, bakery and there are good value restaurants in the surrounding towns and villages.

Cottage 19 - Jacquesson

max sleeping capacity 4, pets allowed.

Ground floor – Twin bedroom with en-suite wheel-in shower room, double bedroom with en-suite shower bathroom, open plan kitchen/dining/living room with terrace. Private gate adjacent to road.

El Pueblito de Alfaix, Almeria, Spain

Set amid rolling hills against a dramatic Cabrera mountain backdrop, the Bond's Spanish home, El Pueblito de Alfaix, was developed by an award winning local architect to resemble an authentic Andalusian village. As a result, with its Moorish style whitewashed villas and apartments – linked by attractive walkways lined with dry stone walls – El Pueblito retains a relaxed 'rural' feel, its beautifully landscaped grounds blending seamlessly into its undisturbed pastoral surroundings.

Located on the eastern fringe of the small hamlet of Alfaix in the province of Almeria, it is part of the autonomous community of Andalucia; the most southern region of Spain. Alfaix lies adjacent to the N340a which provides excellent accessibility.

The complex includes a clubhouse with restaurant and bar facility, 1 covered heated swimming pool, and further main pool together with leisure facilities including 2 tennis courts, table tennis, crazy golf, bowling green, boules, outdoor exercise equipment, children's play area and communal BBQ.

Le Manoir du Hilguy, Brittany, France

Le Manoir du Hilguy is well located in the South Western district of Brittany known as La Cornouaille, and which is France's equivalent to Cornwall. It is surrounded on three sides by sea, with sandy coves, rocky headlands and undulating hills and geographically, is very much like Cornwall, though more southerly and enjoying better weather. Inland Brittany is rich in architectural treasures – castles, chateaux, menhirs and monuments – and authentic folk traditions. It is renowned for its excellent fish and good white wines. Le Manoir du Hilguy, situated 12 kms west of the town Quimper, sits in 12½ acres of landscaped gardens and consists of 60 apartments and cottages. Local amenities do tend to close at the end of the summer. All accommodation includes a fully fitted kitchen and satellite TV. Washing machines are located in the laundry. Indoor Swimming Pool closed for annual maintenance wks 2, 3 and 23 each year.

Apartment 25 – Crozon - max sleeping capacity 4, no pets allowed.

Sibton Park, Kent

Sibton Park is located in the heart of the “Garden of England”. The village of Lyminge is within half a mile with many local amenities including a public house, churches, post office, coffee shop, general stores, restaurant and library. Access to the continent is via the Channel Tunnel, the Cinque Port of Dover for ferry crossings and Eurostar for foot passengers to connect with Brussels, Lille, Paris and beyond.

The Queen Anne Manor House at Sibton Park has been lovingly renovated and twenty-eight sympathetically designed cottages have been added to blend in with tradition. Shady areas, suntraps, formal rose gardens, topiary and established trees are a delight to walk around.

Dover, Leeds and Walmer Castles, Canterbury, Sissinghurst, Godington House, Chilham, Tenterden Vineyard and Pluckley are just a few of the many “must sees” during your stay at Sibton Park.

Cottage 18 – Bluecrop – max sleeping capacity 5, views over lawn with fields in background, pets allowed. Ground floor – Twin bedroom, separate wheel-in shower room, open plan kitchen/dining/living room with single sofa bed. First floor – double bedroom, separate bathroom. Changeover day - Thursday.

Henllys, Anglesey, Wales

The island of Anglesey, or Ynys Mon in Welsh, covers 276 square miles and is separated from the mainland of Wales by the Menai Strait spanned by two bridges. Anglesey itself has many delightful natural attractions including remote, uncrowded coves and beaches. You can enjoy the unrivalled and rugged beauty of the Snowdonia National Park, whether for active recreation or peaceful contemplation - a land of ancient culture, druids, legend, eisteddfods and of song.

The magnificent mansion Henllys, which was built in 1853, is 1 mile from Beaumaris. Within the main house are 25 apartments, of which four have been specially adapted for use by disabled Bondholders.

In the grounds there are a further 63 new properties, of which 53 are cottages. Looking southwards from Henllys over 150 acre Princes' Golf Course, the panoramic view is stupendous - rolling fields, Beaumaris Castle, the Menai Strait and, beyond, the spectacular mountain backdrop of Snowdonia.

Apartment HM9 - Cadfan - max sleeping capacity 5, views overlooking fountains/entrance, pets allowed

Langton House, Dorset

Langton House is set in 15 acres in an area of outstanding natural beauty on the southern outskirts, and within walking distance, of the village of Langton Matravers near Swanage, Isle of Purbeck. Most of the surrounding area is owned by the National Trust, including the nearby beach at Studland.

The 3-storey house, originally built in 1927 as the boys' preparatory school, Spyways, has been tastefully converted into 25 x studios, 1, 2 and 3 bedroom apartments and there are 3 cottages in the grounds. It is set in an elevated position, approximately 90 metres above sea level, and enjoys panoramic views of the downs to the north, the Isle of Wight to the east and south to the Dorset coastal path. To the west is a belt of trees which gives protection from the predominantly south-westerly winds.

Apartment 4 - Whiteway - max sleeping capacity 5, excellent views to the south, pets allowed. Ground floor – Twin bedroom with en-suite wheel-in shower room, double bedroom with separate bathroom, open plan kitchen/dining/living room with Z-bed available. Parking near apartment front door.
