Our properties at Buckland Court

This is an area for which the term “picture-postcard” might have been coined. The Cotswolds is surely one of the prettiest areas of the UK – all honey-coloured limestone, rolling hills and charming, picturesque towns and villages. Once a collection of old farm buildings, our Cotswolds home comprises four one-bedroom and eight two-bedroom cottages, all furnished and equipped to a very high standard.

Wheelchair friendly 1 property

A two-bedroom cottage has been adapted for use by accompanied wheelchair users.

Our properties at Northway Court

HPB's latest site consists of 18 properties together with extensive club facilities, including an indoor swimming pool, a sauna, a children's play area, tennis court, a games room and a bike store. Northway Court enjoys a stunning location, overlooking Peppercombe Beach on the North Devon coast. Six miles or so to the east, Bideford is one of the prettiest and most distinct-looking towns in North Devon with a fascinating history to match its disarming beauty. Barnstaple, about nine miles further on, is one of the UK's oldest boroughs as well as being one of the largest towns in North Devon. Northway Court is surrounded by fabulous walking country – with the Halsdon Nature Reserve to the south, Exmoor National Park to the east, and of course that marvellous coastline. Golfers, meanwhile will make a beeline for Westward Ho! And the Royal North Devon Golf Club, seven miles or so north-east: a proposer links course with excellent greens. All in all, Northway Court offers something for everyone: the cream of Devonshire.
