

Royal Air Force
Benevolent Fund

#makeitcount

REMEMBER WHY YOU'RE DOING IT

You may be asked questions about the RAF Benevolent Fund from people who want to donate to your fundraiser.

Please take a couple of minutes to familiarise yourself with the following information so you are fully equipped to answer them...

What is the RAF Benevolent Fund?

The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund is the leading welfare charity supporting current and former members of the RAF, their partners and families.

What is the RAF Benevolent Fund's purpose?

Our purpose is to understand and support each and every member of the RAF Family, whenever they need us.

What is the RAF Family?

'RAF Family' refers to everyone the RAF Benevolent Fund exists to help, including current members of the RAF, veterans and their partners and families.

What does the RAF Benevolent Fund do?

We provide practical, emotional and financial support to help members of the RAF Family through tough times, whatever life throws at them.

If you'd like to know more about our work, visit:

rafbf.org/about-us

IT COSTS
£400
A WEEK FOR AN RAF VETERAN TO STAY AT
PRINCESS MARINA HOUSE FOR A RESPITE BREAK