All staff will strive to preserve and maintain the privacy, dignity and individuality and of all guests within a warm and caring atmosphere and in so doing will be sensitive to the resident's ever-changing needs. Such needs may be medical / therapeutic (for physical and mental welfare), cultural, psychological, spiritual, emotional and social, and guests are encouraged to participate in the development of their individualised Plan of Care in which the involvement of family and friends may be appropriate and is greatly valued.

This will be achieved through programmes of activities designed to encourage mental alertness, self-esteem, and social interaction with other guests and with recognition of the following core values of care, which are fundamental to the Philosophy of our Home:

CORE VALUES OF CARE

INCLUSIVITY	EMPOWERMENT	DIVERSITY

All staff within the home will be appropriately qualified to deliver the highest standards of care. A continuous staff-training programme is implemented to ensure that these high standards are maintained in line with the latest initiatives and developments in care practices as may be laid down in appropriate legislation, regulations and the Essential Standards Of Quality And Safety
